

SURVEY AREA	OBSERVATION	INTERVIEWING	RECORD REVIEW	EVALUATION FACTORS	CROSS REFERENCE
F197-199 (cont'd) E198 Therapeutic diets prescribed by the attending physician E199 Therapeutic menus are planned in writing, prepared and served as ordered with supervision from the dietitian and advice from the physician whenever necessary.	RENAL REVIEW System in place for the correct provision of renal diets. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Individualized menu - Dietary Staff Utilize menu when serving diets.	Interview Staff regarding knowledge of renal diets: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What foods should be restricted when a patient has kidney problems? 2. What nourishments are given to these patients? 3. Are fluids restricted? Ask Resident: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Are you on a special diet? 2. What foods must you avoid? 3. Do you feel hungry? 4. Do you eat everything at mealtimes? 5. Are the foods the kitchen sends you the correct ones for your diet? 6. Has the dietitian explained your diet to you? 	Renal_Patient_Diet_Review <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pertinent Laboratory Data + Serum Sodium + BUN + Serum Potassium + Albumin + Hematocrit + Creatinine - Pertinent Medications + Vitamin/Mineral + Supplements - Weight gains/losses 	On_Renal_Diets <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ordered by physician - Written menu nutritionally complete in so far as medically possible, including calories - Individualized to suit resident - Laboratory testing as needed - Coordination with dialysis unit to determine effectiveness of diet 	Nursing_Service 405.1124 (d) Patient Care Plan (f) Supervision of Patient Nutrition